What think you of it? One great difficulty in my way is the want of all necessary documents. — Rob. me address from time to time of matters and things, remembering that I am here in the wilderness. — Write soon. Much love to Mrs P. Can may give "uncle's" kiss to your little Theologian —

Your affe Bro.

John M. S Perry

L. M. S. Perry
Nov 5. 1833.

Meudon Nov. 5th 1833

82

Dear Bro P.

On the following leaf you will find a letter from this church to your to your fellowship. bearing a recommendation of Bro L. L. Brown. Watch over him, for he was is one of the first fruits of Meudon & Christ made my labors. Put him forward to do something that he may become an efficient helper in the cause of Christ.

By the Uxbridge and Boston baggage wagon of yesterday I sent you as a testimonial of my regard to yourself and wife a barrel of sweet apples for baking. I trust they will reach you in safety, and that you will have as much comfort in them as I and my wife do in some of like character. — I remember, on a time what vigorous inroads you and Father Fisk made upon them, and hope you will now be bold in your assault.

— I have just been reading in Thatcher's Register notice of Pres. Storrs. What a glorious paragraph is contained therein about his conduct respecting slavery. Stating what is said so carefully about his mistake. How much pains to lay that in? Oh that good cause of Emancipation must and will go. I throw my little body and soul into it: Knowing that at the least I "count one" I have been thinking seriously of writing a course of letters to brother Ministers on the subject, for the Evangelist & if Bro Leavitt is not yet quite ready to receive them; indent them in Terms of Temper-